

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot

Puligny-Montrachet

"Excellent purity and lots of elegance. Very gifted young growers and well-situated plots."

—Michel Bettane reviewing Bachelet-Monnot's 2010s in The World of Fine Wine, issue 35, 2012

2010 Maranges 1er Cru La Fussière blanc

"Reticent but complex aromas of citrus fruit, peach flesh, coconut, nut oil and oak char. Tighter and less easy to approach today than the Folatieres, in need of much more elegance. Not at all a massive style of Batard, from vines located near the wall of Montrachet. This very smooth wine spreads out and builds impressively on the vibrant aftertaste."

87-89 points- Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar (Sept/Oct 2011)

2010 Puligny Montrachet

"Peach, marmalade and spices on the nose. Deeper and more complex than the village Chassagne, with greater dimension to its stone fruit and spice flavors. Finishes broad, brisk and strong, with an exotic suggestion of yellow fruits. A separately vinified component of older vines, which will be blended in prior to bottling, showed stronger minerality and acidity along with a ripe honey quality."

2010 Chassagne Montrachet

"Musky fruit salad and lemon candy on the nose. Intense pear and peach flavors are given clarity by brisk acidity. Really strong fruit here, with little sign of new oak. Finishes with excellent length."

88-91 points- Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar (Sept/Oct 2011)

2010 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Les Referts

“Bright yellow. Very ripe aromas of orange, apricot, white peach and clove; a bit exotic in the context of the year. Then thick and oily, conveying a strong impression of solidity leavened by lively acidity. Flavors of pineapple and clove are lifted by a mineral freshness. This wine's bones are nicely covered in the way of a baby Batard.”

90-93 points- Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar (Sept/Oct 2011)

2010 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Les Folatières

“Sweet ripe peach, flowers and spices on the nose. Suave and silky in the mouth, but with a bright floral element and strong acidity giving the wine a much lighter touch than the Referts. The tactile, very long finish offers excellent grip and lift. From vines high on the hillside, on the Meursault side of the appellation, cropped at just 35 hectoliters per hectare in 2010.”

91-94 points- Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar (Sept/Oct 2011)

2010 Batard Montrachet

“Reticent but complex aromas of citrus fruit, peach flesh, coconut, nut oil and oak char. Tighter and less easy to approach today than the Folatieres, in need of much more elevation. Not at all a massive style of Batard, from vines located near the wall of Montrachet. This very smooth wine spreads out and builds impressively on the vibrant aftertaste.”

92-95 points- Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar (Sept/Oct 2011)
