

Château de Lavernette (formerly Domaine de Boissieu) Leynes

---

2005 Beaujolais “Leynes”

“Medium red. Pungently smoky red cherry and dark chocolate aromas convey richness and power. Velvety and deep in dark berry flavors, with hints of white pepper and dried flowers adding complexity. Impressive, but I’m not sure many people would guess that this was made from gamay.”

89 points– Josh Raynolds, International Wine Cellar (July 2008)

2006 Beaujolais Villages

“Bright medium red. Musky cherry and dark berry aromas are sharply focused, with dusty minerals providing lift. Bitter cherry and blackcurrant flavors are refreshingly bracing and pure, with a light kick of peppery spice on the back end. A clean, nery style that offers good energy and finishing cut.”

88 points– Josh Raynolds, International Wine Cellar (July 2008)