2005 Fronsac

“A delicious Bordeaux in the classic style (as opposed to the more overtly ripe and fruity nouveau style), this offers complex aromas and flavors on a foundation of restrained fruit. The core notes of blackberries and black plums are ripe and clean but not overtly sweet, which leaves room for nice accent notes of autumn leaves, cedar, and minerals. Clean but still complex, this is a very promising partner for ageing, though it can be enjoyed now with relatively robust foods such as roasted or braised beef.”
